In May 2022, Care Net Pregnancy Center In Frederick, Maryland Was Vandalized

On May 3, 2022, Care Net Pregnancy Center In Frederick, Maryland Was Vandalized.

"Also last Tuesday, Care Net Pregnancy Center of Frederick, a faith-based CPC in Maryland, was vandalized. 'There was a vandalism incident the other night,' Frederick Police Chief Jason Lando told Fox News Digital. 'It has been investigated but currently there are no leads. At this time, this appears to be an isolated incident, although our patrol officers are on alert for similar incidents, given then recent Supreme Court decision leak.' Photos posted on Twitter showed graffiti on the Care Net building that read, 'not real clinic,' 'end forced motherhood' and 'go to PP instead,' referring to Planned Parenthood. 'We didn't shut down,' Linda King, Executive Director of Care Net, told Timcast. 'We continued our services. But it was pretty, you know, it's unnerving to see that kind of vandalism, those kinds of statements. And we are a clinic, a real clinic. So to have the lie posted on our door was, you know, it's disturbing.'" In May 2022, Trotter House In Austin, Texas Had A Banner Hanging Outside Torn Down And Replaced By Pro-Abortion Signs

On May 3, 2022, Trotter House In Austin, Texas Had A Banner Hanging Outside Tore Down And Replaced By Pro-Abortion Signs. "Last Tuesday evening, a day after the leaked opinion draft made headlines, pro-choice activists protested in front of the Trotter House in Austin, Texas, and apparently tore down the organization's banner. Videos and photos posted on Twitter showed protesters chanting, 'my body, my choice,' and a large white banner hanging on the front of building that said 'Trotter House.' A Twitter account by the name 'Stop The Sweeps ATX' later posted photos apparently showing the same banner crumpled in the middle of the street and signs posted on the front of the building that read, 'I am not property,' among other pro-choice messages. Austin police told Fox News Digital it didn't respond to any incidents at the Trotter House address last week." Portland, OR

In May 2022, Multiple Downtown Buildings In Portland, Oregon Were Vandalized During A Pro-Abortion Protest

On May 3, 2022, A Pro-Abortion Protest Was Held In Downtown Portland, Oregon. “Several hundred people gathered in Lownsdale Square in downtown Portland on Tuesday, May 3, 2022 to protest a draft opinion overturning the Roe v. Wade abortion rights by the U.S. Supreme Court.” (Dave Killen, “Protesters Gather In Downtown Portland For Abortion Rights,” The Oregonian, 5/3/22)

Multiple Downtown Buildings In Portland Were Vandalized During The Protest. “On the evening of Tuesday, May 3, 2022, a group gathered in the downtown area and marched at various times. During the marches, some participants committed acts of vandalism, including graffiti and broken windows that damaged government buildings, coffee shops, and others (photos). Some burning material and incendiary devices were thrown at the Mark O. Hatfield U.S. Courthouse, but it's unknown if any damage was caused. No known injuries. One arrest was made. Luke S. Anderson, 31, was booked into the Multnomah County Detention Center of charges of Reckless Burning and Disorderly Conduct in the Second Degree. Officers are assessing the scope of the damage and investigating the crimes committed. If anyone has information, including witness statements, photos, video, or other evidence, please e-mail crimetips@portlandoregon.gov and reference case number 22-117206.” (Portland Police Bureau, “UPDATE: Suspect Video/Photos Released Of Criminal Suspects Involved In May 3rd March (Photo),” Press Release, 5/6/22)

In May 2022, A Students For Life Action (SFLA) Coordinator Was Assaulted By A Pro-Abortion Activist In Indianapolis, Indiana

On May 4, 2022, A Students For Life Action (SFLA) Coordinator Was Assaulted By A Pro-Abortion Activist At An Event Held At Monument Circle In Indianapolis, Indiana.

“SFLA also filed a complaint with the FBI, posting a video montage of pro-life activists being physically restrained and harassed by abortion-rights advocates, along with vandalized pregnancy centers and pro-life churches. One example comes from a May 4 ‘Defend Roe’ rally held at Indianapolis’ Monument Circle. A YouTube video of the incident shows SFLA coordinator Mary Zakrajsek, wearing a blue shirt, assaulted by an abortion-rights advocate. ‘She restrained me, screaming in my ear before finally pushing me away,’ Zakrajsek told The Dispatch of the woman who grabbed her. ‘Repeatedly I said, ‘I have a right to be here.’” Describing the situation at the Indianapolis rally, Zakrajsek said, ‘We were taunted, assaulted, shoved by hands and bicycle tires, screamed at, and pushed off the steps of the monument by the abortion lobby ... This is the irony of the abortion lobby. They call themselves ‘pro-woman’ and yet physically assault women.’” (Isaac Willour, “Pro-Life Activists Report Increasing Violence As Dobbs Decision Looms,” The Dispatch, 6/9/22)

Portland, OR

In May 2022, Portland Pregnancy Resource Center In Portland, Oregon Was Vandalized

On May 5, 2022, Portland Pregnancy Resource Center In Portland, Oregon Was Vandalized With Pro-Abortion Graffiti. “Last Thursday, the Southeast Portland Pregnancy Resource Center in Portland, Oregon, was targeted by vandals. Police are still searching for the suspects. ‘Our initial investigation indicates a group of suspects showed up at a pregnancy/medical office in the 5100 block of SE Powell Blvd Thursday morning at about 12:48a.m,’ the Portland Police Bureau told Fox News Digital. ‘They scrawled some graffiti on the wall and broke out numerous windows. If anyone has information about the suspects, they’re asked to contact us at crimetips@portlandoregon.gov and reference case number 22-118884.’ First Image, the pro-life organization that runs the pregnancy center, posted photos of smashed windows and graffiti reading, ‘F--- CPCs.’ ‘Because of the nature of the crime, it is a federal offense, and we are working with the local police and FBI in whatever way we can,’ the organization said on its website. ‘The leak from the Supreme Court this week has clearly turned up the temperature. We knew this would be the case, and that Portland could be a particularly volatile place to be during this significant moment in our culture.” (Jessica Chasmar, “At Least 5 Pro-Life Pregnancy Centers Vandalized Within A Week Of SCOTUS Opinion Leak,” Fox News, 5/11/22)

In May 2022, Saint Joseph's Church And Academy In Armada, Michigan Was Vandalized After Calls From Pro-Abortion Groups To Target Catholic Churches

On May 5, 2022, Saint Joseph's Church And Academy In Armada, Michigan Was Vandalized “In The Wake Of A Leaked Draft Opinion From A Supreme Court Case That Could Overturn Roe V. Wade.” “In the wake of a leaked draft opinion from a Supreme Court case that could overturn Roe v. Wade, a Catholic church and school in Michigan has been vandalized with vulgar graffiti. Activist Dave Reilly shared photos of the destruction of Saint Joseph’s Church and Academy in Armada on his Twitter account Friday. The images show multiple slurs, including ‘F*g Republicans Dead,’ along with the numbers ‘666,’ and the pentagram, both of satanic significance. Also, the word ‘Gay’ was spray-painted onto the church and school’s sign. The church did not return a Friday comment request. The office of Gov. Gretchen Whitmer did not immediately return a comment request. The vandalism of St. Joseph’s Catholic Church follows a pattern of Catholic churches across North America being vandalized, including two that were burned to the ground in a span of days in Canada last summer.” (Peter D’Abrosca, “Michigan Catholic Church Vandalized In Wake Of SCOTUS Leak,” The Tennessee Star, 5/7/22)

MAY 7

Alexandria, VA

In May 2022, The Office For Concerned Women For America In Alexandria, Virginia Was Vandalized

On May 7, 2022, The Office For Pro-Life Group Concerned Women For America In Alexandria, Virginia Was Vandalized. “The office for Concerned Women for America (CWA), the nation’s largest public policy women’s organization, was allegedly vandalized Saturday night by a man after a leaked draft opinion that shows the Supreme Court may end federal protections for abortion. In a video, an unidentified man is shown ripping the organization’s intercom system from the exterior entrance and making inappropriate gestures to the camera multiple times before unzipping his pants to urinate on the door and windows. The video first aired on Tucker Carlson Tonight. In an interview with Fox News Digital, CWA President and CEO Penny Nance said the man is a ‘leftist activist’ and has a history of taunting CWA staff. ‘This has been an ongoing issue, but unfortunately, it’s escalated,’ Nance said. ‘This is an activist who has made it very clear that he doesn’t like our position on the issue of life and other issues, including the idea that biological women matter. For the last few weeks, he has harassed our staff, he’s thrown things at our building, and he’s thrown things on cars inside our secure parking area. But it escalated this weekend.’ Nance, who said the vandalism was discovered on Monday, told Fox News Digital she suspects that the actions taken by the man are in 'connection with the leaked opinion' from the Supreme Court. 'We've seen him for a while now,' Nance said of the man. 'He's a leftist activist.'" (Kyle Morris, Andrew Murray, and Jayme Chandler, "Concerned Women For America Speak Out After Office Vandalized," Fox News, 5/10/22)

Fort Collins, CO

In May 2022, Saint John XXIII Catholic Church In Fort Collins, Colorado Was Vandalized

On May 7, 2022, A Church In Fort Collins, Colorado Was Vandalized. "The FBI Denver Field Office is looking into recent vandalism at churches in Boulder and Fort Collins that happened just days apart. A spokeswoman for the Denver FBI office said damage to religious property can be considered a federal crime. The most recent incident happened on May 7 at a church located at 1220 University Ave. in Fort Collins, according to Fort Collins Police Services (FCPS). Around 1:15 a.m. that day, an unknown person spray painted the front doors of the church and broke exterior glass panels FCPS said. Within 15 minutes, officers responded and searched the building with the help of K-9 Colt. No damage was found inside the church. Due to the location and nature of the graffiti content, FCPS said they're investigating the incident as a bias-motivated crime. 'Using fear and destruction to make a point is completely unacceptable. If you want to make your voice heard, do it by exchanging thoughts and ideas, not by committing criminal acts,' said Chief Jeff Swoboda. 'We need anyone with information to come forward so this suspect can be held accountable.'" (Janet Oravetz, "FBI Investigates Church Vandalisms In Boulder, Fort Collins," KUSA, 5/13/22)

A Pro-Abortion Phrase Was Spray Painted On The Church's Doors And Glass Windows Were Broken. "Fort Collins police are asking for the public's help to find out who vandalized a Catholic church in west Fort Collins on Saturday morning. The phrase 'my body my choice' was spray painted on the doors of St. John XXIII Catholic Church in Campus West about 1:15 a.m. Saturday, according to a Fort Collins Police Services Facebook post. Glass windows were also broken, but no damage was found inside, according to police. Officers responded about 1:30 a.m. and searched the building with the help of K-9 officer Colt. As of 1:30 p.m. Monday, police were still searching for the person or people responsible, spokesperson Kate Kimble said. The incident is being investigated as a bias-motivated crime, also known to as a hate crime.” (Sandy Swanson, “West Fort Collins Catholic Church Vandalized With Pro-Abortion Rights Message Saturday,” Fort Collins Coloradoan, 5/9/22)

Denton, TX – Loreto House

In May 2022, Loreto House In Denton, Texas Was Vandalized

On May 7, 2022, Loreto House, A Catholic Pro-Life Pregnancy Resource Center In Denton, Texas, Was Vandalized With Pro-Abortion Graffiti. “Denton police are looking for the vandal who targeted a Catholic pro-life pregnancy resource center over the weekend. The center's director says he had security concerns right after the leak of the Supreme Court's draft opinion on Roe vs. Wade. The Loreto House in Denton shared surveillance video with FOX 4 that shows what appears to be a young woman spray painting the outside of the building and then spraying the surveillance camera. On Saturday, people who work at the center found the phrases ‘forced birth is murder’ and ‘not a clinic’ on the building. A vandal was caught in the act on surveillance video around 2:30 a.m. Saturday. Their target was the Loreto House on Bonnie Brae Street, a nonprofit that provides free services to women with unplanned pregnancies. That includes items like diapers, clothes and formula but also pregnancy counseling, designed to steer a pregnant woman or teen away from choosing abortion. When Executive Director Randy Bollig arrived around 8 a.m. Saturday morning, he found the front door, entrance sign and building spray painted.” (Macy Jenkins, “Denton Pro-Life Pregnancy Center Vandalized Week After Roe V. Houston, TX

In May 2022, Holy Rosary Catholic Church In Houston, Texas Was Vandalized

On The Weekend Of May 7, 2022, Holy Rosary Catholic Church In Houston, Texas Was Vandalized. “It's very unfortunate that people would desecrate the church like this, take their frustration out on the church,” said Father Peter Damian Harris, Pastor at Holy Rosary Catholic Church at 3671 Milam in Houston. When someone arrived at the church for an 8 a.m. meeting Monday morning, they saw a message saying ‘Pro-Choice is Pro-Life’ painted on the main entrance to the church and a side door. Because of the incident, church has changed its hours. It will open 30 minutes before confession and mass, then close immediately after. The church will reopen at 4 p.m. for confession and mass at 5:15 p.m. ‘It's very unfortunate, but I'd rather take the necessary precautions, then run the risk of someone coming to desecrate our sacred space,’ Harris said. The pastor believes the vandalism at his church is connected to vandalism at two Catholic Churches in Katy. ‘Most definitely, it's a result of the leak that came out last week. The Supreme Court,’ said Harris.” (Randy Wallace, “3 Catholic Churches Vandalized Apparently By Activists,” KRIV, 5/9/22)

In May 2022, The Office Of Wisconsin Family Action In Madison, Wisconsin Was Vandalized And Damaged By Arson

On May 8, 2022, The Office Of Pro-Life Group Wisconsin Family Action In Madison, Wisconsin Was Vandalized And Damaged By Arson. “The office of a conservative political organization that lobbies against abortion rights was vandalized and damaged by fire on Sunday morning in Madison, Wisconsin, in what police are investigating as arson. The fire and vandalism happened at the office of Wisconsin Family Action, authorities said at a press conference Monday. WFA is a political action committee that lobbies against abortion rights and same-sex marriage, according to its website. Police Chief Shon Barnes said WFA appeared to have been targeted because of its beliefs.” (Hannah Sarisohn and Eric Levenson, “Office Of Anti-Abortion Organization In Wisconsin Targeted In Arson Attack, Police Say,” CNN, 10/9/22)

Pro-Abortion Group “Jane’s Revenge” Claimed Responsibility For The Attack. “Federal agents and detectives from the Madison police department are investigating a claim by a pro-choice group that it was behind a weekend arson attack on an anti-abortion office in Wisconsin. The headquarters of Wisconsin Family Action in Madison was attacked in the early hours of Sunday, with a molotov cocktail thrown through a window, starting a small fire, and graffiti spray-painted on an exterior wall. Nobody was hurt. In a statement reported on Tuesday by the Lincoln Journal Star, which said it was unable to verify the group’s authenticity, Jane’s Revenge said it launched the attack because of the organization’s anti-abortion stance, and demanded that similar institutions across the US disband or face ‘increasingly extreme tactics.’” (Richard Luscombe, “Pro-Choice Group Claims Arson Attack On Wisconsin Anti-Abortion Office,” The Guardian, 5/10/22)

Overland Park, KS

In May 2022, An Anti-Abortion Sign At A Church In Overland Park, Kansas Was Vandalized

On May 11, 2022, The Church Of The Ascension Was Vandalized. “The Overland Park Police Department is asking for possible tips in identifying a person responsible for criminal damage to property at a church near 127th Street and Antioch Road. What we know: The incident took place at Church of the Ascension at roughly 10:20 p.m. on Wednesday, May 11, according to police.” (Lucie Krisman, “Police Investigating Damage To Abortion-Related Sign At Overland Park Church,” Blue Valley Post, 5/18/22)

A Sign Promoting An Anti-Abortion Ballot Measure Was Damaged. “In the black-and-white image shared by police, the individual can be seen standing in front of the sign, which appears to be staked into the ground on both sides and is eye-level with the individual. ... Not the first time: Residents who have re-shared police’s post on Facebook say the sign was promoting the proposed Value Them Both amendment Kansans will vote on August 2. The amendment, if approved, would nullify a 2019 Kansas Supreme Court ruling that found a right to abortion in the state constitution and pave the way for the state legislature to impose new restrictions on abortion. Overland Park Police Public Information Officer John Lacy confirmed the sign pertains to abortion.” (Lucie Krisman, “Police Investigating Damage To Abortion-Related Sign At Overland Park Church,” Blue Valley Post, 5/18/22)

- The Sign Had Been Tampered With Already On Two Prior Occasions. “He said this is the third time the church’s sign has been tampered with. Latrice Booker, director of Hope Pregnancy Center in Philadelphia, told CNA that when she drove by her clinic Saturday, June 11, she found four windows smashed, with one written on with graffiti. It is unclear what the graffiti says. Three glass doors were smashed as well, she said.” (Joe Bukuras, “Another Pro-Life Clinic Attacked, This One In Philadelphia,” Catholic News Agency, 6/15/22)

Damages To The Center Were Estimated At “Around $15,000.” “She estimated the damages to be around $15,000. As of Tuesday afternoon, the windows were boarded up and the clinic is in the process of repairs. They are still open for business, she said.” (Joe Bukuras, “Another Pro-Life Clinic Attacked, This One In Philadelphia,” Catholic News Agency, 6/15/22)

An Online Blog Post From Someone Claiming Credit For The Damage Called The Center A “Fake Clinic” And Said They Were Tired Of The Group’s “Family Values.” “An online blog post on the website phlanticap.noblogs.org dated June 12 contains a message of someone claiming responsibility for the vandalism under the name ‘Anti Hope Brigade.’ ‘We smashed out all of the windows of the “Hope” pregnancy center on Broad st. We are tired of your “family values” and you forcing families, and your values onto our bodies. This fake clinic spread lies and is part of a broader attempt to strip away body autonomy from hundreds of women and people,’ the post says.” (Joe Bukuras, “Another Pro-Life Clinic Attacked, This One In Philadelphia,” Catholic News Agency, 6/15/22)

- The Blog Post Said They Were Inspired By The “Actions Of Comrades In Wisconsin, Colorado, New York, And A Growing List Of Places.” “The post also says that the vandalism was inspired by the ‘actions of comrades in Wisconsin, Colorado, New York, and a growing list of places.’ Attacks on either pro-life pregnancy centers or pro-life churches have occurred in each of those states.” (Joe Bukuras, “Another Pro-Life Clinic Attacked, This One In Philadelphia,” Catholic News Agency, 6/15/22)
- The Poster Claimed Their “Attacks Will Broaden” If “The Attack On Abortion Does Not Stop.” “‘If the attack on abortion does not stop our attacks will broaden,’ the post says. ‘This is also intended as a small gesture of complicity with all those imprisoned by the state, in honor of June 11th.’” (Joe Bukuras, “Another Pro-Life Clinic Attacked, This One In Philadelphia,” Catholic News Agency, 6/15/22)
